Bell Hops Proving Fun — BELL Now Being Composed

Three Held To Date

That wonderful M.B.A. Key Club has given two marvy Bell Hops since Santa Claus made his last trip. Handsome boys sold cokes and made the evenings simply super.

There were huge crowds at all parties and some of the O.A.O.s present were: Lovely, Martha Evers; blonde, Tiny Calvin; cute, Ree Duncan; prexy, Lillian Dobson; adorable, Margaret Hayes; unexplainable, Jane O'Callahan; pretty, Mary Sue Miller, beautiful (just ask S. or S. or . . . ?) Jan Wilkerson, entertaining Madolin Reynolds, exciting Beth Blackard. (It runs in the family), enticing Penny Creighton (also characteristic), and — Joyce Garrett.

Of course the usual social lion's touch was there, thanks to Mr. Sage. To you they're just plain wolves.) were on hand.

We're expecting all the hand help make the next Bell Hop a super duper affair.

Already in the planning stage is the highlight of M.B.A.'s social activities—the Spring Formal—more about that—on later.

Also being planned is the stunt night. Just as last year the five forms—grade school—freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior will present shows.

The prize offered will again be a half-holiday. Last year the juniors won with the freshmen close behind.

Snow Hits Campus So What?

The first arrival at M.B.A. on Monday morning, Jan. 31 was our beloved headmaster. Second to enter the school for safety was Ernest Franklin in response to the Head's queries about his difficulties in getting to school our friend Ernest simply said that it was a bit cold. Whereupon Mr. Sager decided that since neither Ernest nor himself had had any trouble getting to school the remainder of the student body should experience no difficulty.

After the somewhat delayed (much to the dismay of Mr. Cornelius' split-second schedule) first bell Mr. Sager informed the student body that only in the case of four inches or less of snow would school be dismissed for a day to facilitate the digging of tunnels between buildings. However, this column would take this opportunity to caution against hasty decisions to remain away from school unless the individual student is telephoned by a member of the faculty.

Sharp, Cantrell Win Books

The history classes have been given time current affairs tests. These tests, composed by Tim, are designed to cover all the events of the day. Every student has an equal opportunity to win. As an award time offers a choice of books to the winners. The tests are given several times a year. Winners of the most recent one are Vernon Sharp and Dick Cantrell.

Bell Ringer To Choose Four Girls As Class Representatives

Every great man in history has been backed up by a woman. Or so someone once said. Even if success is not based on women, every so often a girl does come in. The procedure will be used: Only Freshmen can vote for the Freshman representative; Sophomores, for the Sophomore; etc. The vote is to be written out and turned in to Dick Cantrell. Since the Academy has an honor system it is presumed that no one will cheat. All votes for all representatives must be in before February 28. Please tell which representative you are voting for.

Blackburn To Head Maroon Rifle Team

This year, Nashville has set a record by forming an Interscholastic rifle league under the sponsorship of the State Incorporated. This new loop, consisting at present of thirteen Nashville and Davidson County high schools, was termed by YI director of marksmanship, Captain Frank B. Hill, the only league of its kind in existence now. For the time, the courses of the Nashville City Schools will be indoor rifle ranges at East, West, and North will be available for shooting, and, after it's completion, an outdoor range at Youth Incorporated's country place. The league will have eight teams each, if enough entries are received from local high schools. In turn, each team will consist of five boys, with about five alternates to round out the squad. As in other sports, members of the squad must be fairly proficient in shooting to remain eligible for participation. A faculty sponsor will be appointed to coordinate this activity with the school program. At M.B.A., Mr. Blackburn will act in that capacity. Practice sessions will take place weekly, with West High ranging at the end of Main Street, under the supervision of Captain Hill, are to be supplied by Youth Incorporated; Captain William E. Melby, Sergeant Luther Johnson, and Sergeant Louis

Perry, all of the U. S. Marine Corps; W. A. Barnett, William Bryant, and Dr. R. P. Miller. All of them are highly experienced with firearms and are recommended by the National Rifle Association as being qualified; in his years of experience Captain Hill has won dozens of medals and trophies and has recently referred several important rifle and pistol meets. Rifles are to be supplied so that boys without can still enjoy the sport.

M.B.A.'s hopes for honors lie chiefly with such crack shots as George Smartt, Bill Blackie, Lem Spangler, and others. Captain Franklin, State Junior Trap Shoot Champion for the past three years who is expected to help the Maroon cause with a rifle instead of a shotgun. However, as tryouts are to be conducted on a handicap basis with inexperienced boys given a better chance, the squad ten spots are wide open for anyone who will apply himself.

Riflery is a sport which teaches sportsmanship and coordination of the mind and body; it can be enjoyed for a lifetime and, unlike most sports, physical requirements are not too stringent. With these attractive features, it seems quite probable that the new league is headed for success.

Alumni News

During the glorious month of December and the Christmas vacation I had a chance to see many of M.B.A.'s fabulous alumni. For instance Bill Howard and Tommy Goodloe were home from V.M.I. Both of the boys look exceptionally well. Tom Kennedy and Bernard Werthan have nothing but good things to say about M.L.T.

Also here for the holiday season were Jake Wallace, Ed Nelson and Bill Bailey. These boys have been residing at the University of the South, where they say there is a scarcity of girls.

The party of the season was indeed Neil Cargile's New Year's Eve blowout; such charming gentlemen as Al Whitson, Greasy Frier son and Davenport Mosby.

STRAY THOUGHTS

Harry Carson is the lover of the month. Just ask him; he'll tell you. The Alumni of the month is Sid Keeble, who lent the slot machine 15 dollars—too bad, Sid.

Fess Rule Directs As Glee Club Organized

The 49 edition of the Glee Club is already practicing five numbers. "I'm Falling in Love With Someone," "My Heart Stood Still," "Danny Boy," "Begin the Beguine," and "Night and Day." (I love you truly, Mr. Rule.)

The club is shaping up fairly well and should be ready to present their first program.

M.B.A. is planning another show night. Last year's being a huge success with all the classes trying to win the half holiday offered as a prize. So be thinking about a good play for your class. It's rumored that the seniors (last year's winners) are all ready writing their script.

Price, Creighton, and Sharp head a committee appointed by the seniors to try to get together for a ride. Joe Erwin has been working on his part for almost two weeks. (How is it up on that lat ter Jose.)

Informal Snap Due Feb. 15

The selected members of the annual staff, under the supervision of Mr. Sager, recently began work on the 48-49 BELL. The members of the staff have pledged themselves to producing a fine annual commemorative this year for the Academy. Indeed, the staff is spending a great deal of time and effort to assure the students of the best annual yet.

One of the first objectives in the planning of this year's BELL is originality. The yearbooks of past years have been inspected to prevent needless repetition in makeup and copy.

Heading the staff are Andy Spickard, editor; and Franklin Jarman, business manager. Andy will be assisted by Vernon Sharp, while the feature section will be edited by Moore Milam and Togy Jones; sports will be covered by Tom Watts. In the photographic department, Huston Horn is doing a good job. Clean, clear, and distinct, an annual is too much work for these few boys; therefore, they will from time to time call on other students to help them.

So that more pictures of a good quality may be had the staff is holding a snapshot contest with a group of prizes amounting to nine dollars being offered for the single entry judged best. The photograph editor and for the largest number of submitted snaps accepted for publication. Especially snaps showing school life—the boys as they work and play—are desired. THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING THESE PICTURES IS FEBRUARY FIFTEEN.

A NEW feature of the BELL this year will be the selection on nine girls as sponsors for all the sports and two each for the BELL and BELL RINGER, to be chosen by the captains of the teams and in the cases of the publications by the Editors and Business Managers. Old features will include the calendar, the sports sections, the class pictures, and snapshots.

Good Books Fill Library

At the mention of books in the school library all to often the average M.B.A. boy thinks of comic books, pulp fiction, and some long-forgotten subject. This unfortunate picture came about when, several years ago, the shelves contained such works. Since that time these books have been removed; now on the shelves are the art and literature, stories, facts, puzzles—in short entertainment. This year alone 90 books have been purchased, not dull or uninteresting ones but refreshing, entertaining, or instructive ones, the best sellers are included.

In the selection of books for the library Mrs. Campbell is guided by the requests she receives from teachers and students. If you know of a book you would like to see in the M.B.A. library—tell Mrs. Campbell chances are that she'll order it.

The library is designed to meet two needs—one to help the boys in their work both in school and out; two for recreation. To these ends let us use our library.

M. B. A. Hot, Then Cold, Heads For Tourney*"MAROON HIGHLIGHTS"
By RASCOE DAVIS

What big ears you have, Billy Joe!
Immediately after the Hopkinsville-M.B.A. game, Billy Joe Watts, who stands slightly under five feet and weighs ninety pounds, held out his hand and said, "Hi, fella, glad to see you again—I'm Bill Joe Ehrhart, the guy who ran wild against the Maroons at Hopkinsville last year. The six feet former end was astaghast and according to our reports wandered off muttering something about all a back need to make him famous is a big fool."

Hopkinsville cheerleaders at the Bellman following the M.B.A.-Hopkinsville basketball game "was merely a sportsmanlike gesture, gentlemen," commented Charlie Hawkins in an exclusive interview yesterday. Quoting from number of boys such as Charles Blasard, Jim Burch, Lewis Woods, Ernest Franklin and Don Wade (to mention only a few) seemed to have also suddenly developed sportsmanlike attitudes.

Congratulations to Bobby Worrall who successfully enfeoffed and interpreted the passes of the Hootown team so well that he became one of the main factors in the Kentukian's defeat . . . to Bobby Laney, unanimously selected by the sports staff the Maroon Star member of the Junior Varsity.

To supplement the three-quarters of an inch of rubico originally put on the tennis courts another quarter inch will be added sometime during April. This is expected to delay spring tennis practice for two weeks.

Fess Blackburn, who is scheduled to be the coach of the newly-organized rifle squad, says he's had more experience with light-caliber paper than shotshells with rifle. (That's all right, Fess, the boys have shot more bull than bull's eyes.)

It must have been Mr. Sager's lecture in assembly.

His frequent dancing with the squad . . . to the whole B team for holding a West high squad that had Veach as a enter to a six-point victory. Jimmy Morrissey for hitting close to five hundred per cent of his shots in both the Run and Hopkinsville games . . . to Imam Fox, who scored five points in less than five minutes against Hopkinsville . . . to Don Wade for taking such a hand in handling or rebounds off the backboard . . . to the Key Club for selecting such evenly matched teams for the intramurals.

Don Wade has here to fore specialized (despite his height which is less than any of the starter except myself) in taking the ball off the backboard and in consistently good, reliable ball handling. Of late, however, he has become a threat which the Maroon's future opponents will be forced to reckon with. In the game against Guthrie, Kentucky, he scored eleven points to cap the high score for the night. In the game with the Vandy Freshmen he was inspired early in the game and was unable to supplement his total. But according to latest word, he will be back in shape for the West game.

Excuse Department . . . Had the Maroons been less "tight" in their game . . . (sent in by a Guthrie sulk) sunk their usual 25 or 30 percent of shots, they would have won the game . . . (sent in by a Guthrie supporter) Had the referee scored less points the East High would have been sure to win . . . Any coach's excuse: "We'd win more games if some of the players weren't too interested in every Emily, Lucy and Sue sitting in the stands."

Football, Tennis Squads Honored At Banner Sports Banquet

A rival newspaper, the Nashville Banner honored both our championship squads, football and tennis, at its annual sports banquet. In addition to honoring the best in football and tennis, the Banner paid tribute to the Maroon's basketball, golf and baseball teams; the most valuable player in the Southeastern and the Interscholastic league; the outstanding coach in the southeastern; the All-City and All-Middle Tennessee Eleven.

The chief address of the night was made by Red Grange, Mr. Football himself. His talk was enunciated by numerous anecdotes. In listing the requirements for a good football player, Grange stressed two things: desire and determination—these are the very two words Howard Allen stresses at M.B.A.

A gift of Fred Russell's new book Football Through Sports was made to everyone attending. The meal itself was enjoyable from the shrimp to the dessert.

After the dinner, Grange, Rouch, and Price signed autographs. Even though the banquet was held by a rival newspaper the Bell Ringer presented the All-sports on their efforts.

Hawkins Heads Maroon Scorers

Charlie Hawkins led the M.R.A. cagers in scoring with Jim Morrissey and Bobby Worrall copper second and third places respectively according to results computed after the M.B.A.-Vandy Fresh tilt.

Hawkins had 157 points for 15 games, Morrissey 102, Worrall 98. Morrissey ran a close second with a 9.8 average and a total of 147 points.

Other results were:

Player	Games	Total Points	Avg
Robby Worrall	15	131	8.73
Chas. Blackwell	14	73	5.21
Bill Coble	14	49	3.50
Stirton Oman	12	34	2.83
Don Wade	15	42	2.80
Carl Gates	14	31	2.21

Hawkins also topped tops in the foul shooting department sinking 17 baskets in 25 tries. Worrall was second with 23 goals for 43 attempts.

Results and averages were:

Players	No. of free throws	Shot	Good	Avg.
Charlie Hawkins	25	17	.680
Bobby Worrall	23	20	.870
Chas. Blackwell	22	8	.363
Bill Coble	12	4	.333
Jim Morrissey	46	16	.347
Stirton Oman	16	6	.375
Don Wade	30	12	.400
Carl Gates	4	1	.250

— The First Five —

JIMMY MORRISSEY—Deadly accurate . . . Jim has only hit his stride . . . one of the members of our fast break team. Morrissey to Worrall to the basket . . . his set shot is one of the most feared in the league . . . famed for his facial contortions and crew cuts . . .

DON WADE—Always ready . . . one of the best ball handlers on the club . . . not tall but he generally clears the boards . . . another good man with the set shot . . . always dependable in the clutch.

CHARLIE BLACKLARD—Tall, good-natured . . . a better than average shot . . . works well under the boards . . . depend on Chuck to fight for the ball there's half a chance to get it . . . smooth working.

BOBBY WORRAL—Mr. Coordination . . . As opposing players have discovered, the ball is never far from Worrall's hands. Fast break artist . . . famous for his erratic lighting speed combined with excellent control to insure the Big Red's success . . . dangerous not only under the basket but anywhere on the floor . . . outstanding defense . . . never lets a man shoot unguarded.

CHARLIE HAWKINS—Tall, rough-ready . . . all around athletic spirit . . . works well with Wade under the basket . . . leads the club for high score . . . always ready with that little extra something that places some athletic above the general run of basketball players.

Guthrie, West High and Low of M. B. A.'s Basketball This Year

The M.B.A. Maroons officially opened their '48-'49 basketball season on the night of December 10, 1948 when they engaged the combatants from Hoko Smith High School, Athens, Georgia. Playing at the B.A., the Big Red rolled up a 43-25 score to swamp the visitors. Maroon Captain Bobby Worrall led the scoring for the night as he tossed in 14 points. Chuck Hawkins got 12, and Jim Morrissey 9. Bill Coble and Mandel shared honors for the losers with 7 apiece.

The next team to fall victim to the Red horde was the Peabody Tigers, who went away from the M.B.A. gym with the short end of a 24-24 count on the afternoon of December 14. Only in the second quarter did they manage to score at all. The Maroons were 10-10 when both teams got seven. Coach Allen used all fifteen men, and as a result nearly everybody got into the scoring column. Chuck Hawkins led the Red with 9, S. Worrall got 7, followed by Morrissey 6, Coble 5, and Billie Coble's 3. Maynard and Payne led the losers with 7 and 4 respectively.

On the night of December 17, the Red journeyed to the North High Yanks at a score of 84-31 on the M.B.A. floor. Although every man on the Maroon squad scored, Blackard eked out high honors for the team with 16 points. Hawkins 9, and Mandel 15 each. Closson had 13, and McDaniel shared honors for the losers with 8 apiece.

The long journey to Whitehouse, Tennessee on the night of Saturday, January 22, was easily made by the Maroons. The 50-39 on the Big Red team racked up. Jimmy Morrissey proved to be the hottest thing on the hardwood as he hit for 25 points to lead Maroon scoring in a single game for the year. Brooks, highly touted Worrall got 12, and Mandel 11. Hawkins 9, and Blackard 8. The Northerners' 31 points.

On the afternoon of January 21, M.B.A. journeyed to T.I.S. for a fray, and came away with the long end of a 23-20 score. Hawkins got 17, followed by Morrissey 9, and Billie Coble's 8. Maynard and Payne led the losers with 7 and 4 respectively.

On the night of December 17, the Red team home to the Peabody Tigers by a 60-19 count on the losers' floor. Morrissey again led the Red-Clad crew as he got 15. Hawkins and Worrall followed with 9 apiece. The most any one man could muster for the Tigers was 6 scored by Lee.

Saturday night, January 8, the Maroons engaged Lawrenceburg at M.B.A. gymnasium, and even though the squad again entered the contest, the Red team coasted to a 59-39 victory. Jimmy Morrissey was high man for M.B.A. He got 17, followed loosely by Chuck Hawkins with 14. Morrissey's 17 was attributed to the Wildcats' cause. Adams garnered ten points and Smith nine.

On the night of January 29 the gymnasium of East High was the scene of sweet revenge for the M.B.A. team as they downed the Goldmen of Kentucky by a 54-32 score. This was the same Bluegrass team that had given the Maroons a 46-15 licking before Christmas. Don Wade was high scorer for the night with 11. Morrissey garnered 10, followed with 9 and McCormick with 7 for the Kentuckians.

The Big Red inauspiciously started February with a 54-31 loss to the Vandy freshmen on the night of February 1. The more experienced Jim Morrissey led the team over the Maroon floor in racking up their triumph. Hawkins led the Big Red with 13. For the Goldmen it was Kardokas with 15 and Smith and Heldman with 12 each.

Don Wade's victory for the Vandy game might hurt the Maroons against Ryan. The Irish are always a hard crew to beat on their night.

Personality Of The Month

WARD LOVELL

Ward Lovell or the Bell Weevil, as he was known as in them than days, might well be selected as the most school spirit at M.B.A. Although originally a football star, he has played out on the varsity for two years always turning in a better than average performance. For his play he has been a member of the Monogram Club since last year. While at the Academy, Ward has been well known for his love of good music, sung the Lovell way. If you happen to hear "Sweeter than the Flowers?" or "Paint My House with Warren Paint" don't look for Milton Estes; look for Lovell.

While Ward doesn't pace the honor roll each week, he does make good grades managing to keep in the passing column.

Aside from his singing and his football, Ward is a good driver; he drives the Bell Weevil has been owning Fords "nigh on to 4 year now." His present job is a battleship grey, highly polished coupe, which has won the admiration of many a bicycle owner.

JOKES (I Think)

Exams are just like women
Which is exactly right;
They ask such foolish questions
And keep you up all night.

M. S.: "What's the idea of wearing that barrel, Todd?" Are you a poker player?"

Todd: "Nope, but I just spent a couple of hours with some guys who are."

Daffy Nitons (on Mrs. B's exam?)

Letter: a batch of puppies

Nerfs: doctor's assistants

Pence: trousers

Puppet: a very small dog

Paradox: two ducks

Acquire: a group of church singers

Grudge: a place where cars are kept

Mrs. Seger: "What did your father say when he fell off the ladder?"

Nancy: "Well I leave out the naughty words."

Mrs. Seger: "Of course, dear."

Nancy: "Nothing."

Mrs. Wade: "You mustn't pull the cat's tail."

Don: "I'm only holding it. The cat is pulling."

"Are you troubled with improper thoughts?"

"Now, I enjoy them."

First person: "Dull party isn't it?"

Second person: "Yes."

First person: "Let's go home."

Second person: "Can't; I'm the host."

"It must be rather difficult to eat soup with a mustache."

"Yes, it's quite a strain."

Mr. Rule: "Do you know why a locomotive can't sit down?"

Bill Ryan: "No, why?"

Mr. Rule: "Because it has a tender behind."

Mrs. B.: "All bright men are conceited."

Horn: "Oh, I don't know!"

I'm not!"

The girls who thinks no man is good enough for her may be right—also she may be left.

Mrs. B.: "Order please." Voice from the back of room: "A chip chocolate milk shake, please."

The head never swells until the brain stops growing.

The reason a dog so many friends is that his tail wags instead of his tongue.

Mrs. B.: "Lance, spell avoid." Lance: "Tell me foist de avoid."

What's the use of livin'? you'll die.
What's the use of lovin'? you'll cry.
What's the use of kissin'? she'll tell.

What's the use of anything? Oh, well!
I'm not!"
